AMUSEMENTS

WANDA HAWLEY AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Did you ever know there were such things as "dual kisses"? Neither did anyone else until a press agent, eager to boost "The Vanities," a struggling musical comedy show, advertised "Maybelle Flowers" as the "Kissing Girl." The young lady's assortment of osculatory capers was said to include "the chaste kiss of the valley kiss," the scorching crimson rambler, and the lingering, tantalizing honeysuckle-twister. It threw an awful monkey wrench into the machinery! For Maybelle was no less than the daughter of a very proud old California family who had joined the chorus to recoup the falling family fortunes. When a man, seeking a nice safe correspondent in a divorce suit, gets tangled up with a jealous lover and proud parents feel disgraced by a daughter's connection with the stage, it can be imagined that "Things are doing." The floral kisses are but one of a series of comedy events in "Food For Scandal" in which Miss Wanda Hawley and Harrison Ford will be seen at the Butler today. And added to the program will be a two-reel Seagull comedy, "Fresh From the City." Tomorrow Alice Lake in "Shore Acres," the old stage classic. Coming Monday, Louise Glaum in "The Leopard Woman."

RESCUE VALUES CONTINUES HIGH

Values in the new strike in the east drift on the 1100-foot level of the Rescue-Eula remain as high as when the ledge was first struck, and every indication points to the continuation of the rich ore. The opening up of this orebody makes the Rescue one of the truly big mines of this district, and the favorable developments there are already reflected in the price of the stock, which climbed to 33 on the market today. Shrewd followers of the market predict that the stock will show further rises during the next week.
